

biome	appearance/info	climate	organisms	location tundra	The tundra has glaciers, ice caps and icy fields. it also has non icy areas with fields plains and plateaus	long winters and short mild winters	wolves	wolves caribou polar bears and arctic cotton boreal forest	tall trees dotted with thousands of lakes many boggy wetlands and industrial cities	dark cold covered in ice and snow in the winter. in the spring and summer the snow melts away and the forest comes to life	wolves -insects -chipmunks -deer -lichens - wood mice -squirrels -mosses -leaves -and lots of fruits/summer fruits	North America -Asia - Europe temperate forest	Filled with tall, green trees. There is a lot of rainfall and it's very moist. There are woody plants and carpets of leaves	Winter, -20 degrees at the lowest, Summer, 70 degrees at the most	Birds, deer, elk, moose, fox, bears, wolf, wild flowers, plants, shrubs and trees	Canada, Mexico and USA tropical rain forest	Tall trees ,Filled with colour from animals and and dark because the trees block out the sun	hot and damp	There are lizards, crocodillians, snakes, insects and bugs, birds, mammals, and frogs	it is usuallly between the tropic of capricorn and cancer grassland	lots of grass and few tress	hot summers, cold winters. In the summers it can be over 100 degrees.	grass, anaconda, mongoose	south America, Africa etc.
desert	The desert is dry and sandy. It doesn't usually rain in the desert.	The desert is extremely hot in the day and cold in the night.	Snakes, scorpions, cacti	Asia, Africa, East part of South and North America.